Wine Advocate # 178 Aug 2008	Antonio Galloni	86	Drink: 2008 - 2010	$18 (18)

The 2006 Chianti Montalbano from Tenuta Pierazzuoli is a plump, fruit-driven Chianti made in a harmonious, accessible style. This pleasing, soft-textured red should be at its finest over the next year or two. Anticipated maturity: 2008-2010.

2005 Tenuta Pierazzuoli Gioveto

A Monteregio Rosso Dry Red Table wine from Capraia Fiorentina, Tuscany, Italy

Wine Advocate # 184 Aug 2009	Antonio Galloni	91	Drink: 2009 - 2015	$45 (45)

The 2005 Gioveto (60% Sangiovese, 20% Merlot, 20% Syrah) reveals gorgeous depth as well as balance. Ripe dark fruit, sweet herbs, menthol, minerals and spices come together in this dense, full-bodied red. The finish is long and refined. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2015.

These are two delicious, racy reds from Tenuta Pierazzuoli, a small family-run domaine located in the Montalbano district outside Florence.

2005 Tenuta le Farnete Carmignano Riserva

A Proprietary Blend Dry Red Table wine from Carmignano, Tuscany, Italy

Wine Advocate # 184 Aug 2009	Antonio Galloni	91	Drink: 2009 - 2015	$45 (45)

The 2005 Carmignano Riserva from Tenuta Le Farnete is a dark, earthy wine loaded with black cherries, wild herbs, spices and licorice. This full-bodied, generous Carmignano boasts notable intensity and length. Stylistically it is perhaps a bit untamed, but I loved the wine for its exuberant personality. The Carmignano Riserva is 80% Sangiovese and 20% Cabernet Sauvignon, and was aged in French oak barrels. This is a terrific effort. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2015.

Wine Advocate # 184 Aug 2009	Antonio Galloni	89	Drink: 2009 - 2014	$39 (39)

The 2006 Chianti Montalbano Riserva (100% Sangiovese) is soft and harmonious in its dark red cherries, earthiness, tobacco and spices. This plump, juicy Chianti offers excellent length and an undeniably attractive personality. My preference would be to drink the wine on the young side, while the fruit is still vibrant. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2014.
