

RAMPA DI FUGNANO

The Azienda Agricola Rampa di Fugnano has existed since the early 70s and is situated on a hill near San Gimignano. The Azienda had been taken over in 1991 by the Swiss couple Gisela Traxler and Herbert Ehrenbold. In 2009 the Azienda was taken over by the German couple Bettina Kurz and Frank Hoefinger who follow the tradition of making excellent wines. San Gimignano is situated in the province Siena, 60 km away from the airport Florence, 30 km away from Siena and 50 km from the seaside. San Gimignano is UNESCO world cultural heritage.

The winery comprises 9 hectares vineyard, 370 olive trees and more than 10 hectares forest. The location of Rampa di Fugnano with a wonderful sight of the San Gimignano Panorama is unique. The quality of the produce is widely recognized, both as national and international level, as many prizes and recognitions can testify.

All our wines are produced biological. The Azienda Agricola Rampa di Fugnano is run for more than 20 years with Italian wines of very high quality which have reached very good international level as might prove different Wine guides as "Gambero rosso", "Veronelli", "Wine Advocate", "Wine Spectator" Guida dell'Espresso "I Vini d'Italia, Mondo etc. In 2003 the international wine magazines "Wine Gourmet" defined the Rampa di Fugnano as one of the best winemaking companies in Tuscany and the wine critic Robert Parker assigned our MerlotGisele with 94 points out of 100 possible. In 2010 two of our wines have won 2 Silver medals at the world's biggest international wine competition "DECANTER World-Wine-Awards" : "Bombereto 2006"- 100% Sangiovese and "Gisele 2005" - 100% Merlot.
